Dummy Ticket for Visa India: Complete information about easy and secure visa process

Having the correct documents is crucial when applying for a visa to travel abroad from India. Embassies in most countries require flight tickets or travel reservations during visa applications. However, booking confirmed tickets without visa approval can be expensive and risky. A Dummy Ticket for Visa India is a smart and reliable solution.

What is Dummy Ticket for Visa India?

A Dummy Ticket for Visa India is a temporary flight reservation that looks exactly like a real air ticket. It includes the passenger's name, travel date, route, airline details, and PNR number. This ticket is considered valid for visa application, but it cannot be used for travel.

This is ideal for those who don't want to book expensive confirmed tickets before getting their visa.

Why does the embassy ask for flight tickets?

The embassy requests flight tickets to:

- The applicant's intention to travel should be clear
- To ensure that the applicant will return on time
- Travel dates must match the visa type

It's important to know that most embassies accept travel reservations, not confirmed tickets. Therefore, a Dummy Ticket for Visa India is a perfect option.
